

Hell Hole Herald

November 2017 Edition

THE HELL HOLE OF KORORAREKA

From our man on The Strand, Russell.

Mayor Rufus Blarney was today the victim of a citizen's arrest by his wife, Millicent. He was, she said, in flagrante with a notorious local strumpet. The Mayor, however, said his involvement was entirely upstanding.

Meanwhile, businessmen Joel Pollack and Ben Turner aired their avowed differences on the beach in Russell. Pistols are known to be involved and Police Constable Cuffs is investigating.

The Reverend Prim and Bishop Pompallier discussed this theatrical turn of events over tea, accompanied by Ladies of the Temperance Movement.

Join sailors, traders, whalers, wharfies, wenches, rascals and reprobates

Kororareka (Russell)

ANNIVERSARY WEEKEND. SATURDAY

28TH & 29TH JANUARY 2018.

Kororareka Street Theatre. The Strand, Russell. Rufus Blarney seen here escaping from the women of the Temperance Movement and Millicent, his wife.

GETTING THERE

Car: Fullers Great Sights Ferry
Opua – Okiato. Then 9ks to Russell.

Foot: Three regular ferries per hour
from Paihia to Russell foreshore

Saturday and Sunday, both days.
Performance times to be advised.

Missionaries & Madams

Madmen & Mayhem

Mime & Mirth